CASTELLO DI AMA RISERVA - 2008

REGION: ITALY - TUSCANY

CASTELLO DI AMA

Castello di Ama was founded in 1976, and is located in Gaiole in Chianti, within the additional geographical unit of the same name (UGA), located in the heart of Tuscany. It is located about 12 miles northeast of Siena in the hills of Gaiole. This is the heart of Chianti Classico, a bucolic rolling landscape of woods, vineyards and olive groves.

The estate is currently helmed by CEO Lorenza Sebasti, a member of the second generation of one of the four founding families. Marco Pallanti, who was once the President of the Chianti Classico Consorzio, has been the winemaker and technical director at Castello di Ama since 1982.

The goal of the estate is to have each bottle of Castello di Ama express the uniqueness of the terroir, and be an authentic expression of the vintage. Ama has practiced sustainable viticulture since the end of the 1990s, and recently received Equalitas (Italy) certification.

REVIEWS

Castello di Ama Riserva – 2008

95 Points - Wine Spectator, April, 2021

A complex bouquet of smoky cherry, plum, iron, leather and spice is enticing, while the supple texture is laden with fading fruit, spice, sanguine and tobacco flavors. Lively and long, it firms up on the finish, where the fruit and savory elements converge. Drink now through 2033.

91 Points - jamessuckling.com, August, 2021

A Chianti Classico with dark-berry, walnut and balsamic character, following through to a medium body with mushroom and bark. Drying slightly at the finish. But typical for an aged wine from this region. Needs drinking.

93 Points - View From The Cellar, August, 2021

The 2008 Riserva from Castello di Ama is a lovely example from a quite old school vintage, as this wine hails from a year with a cool spring, hot summer and long, temperate autumn that saw the grapes brought in from October 3rd to the 5th in 2008. The wine is eighty percent sangiovese and the other twenty percent a mix of cabernet franc, merlot and malvasia nero and the wine was raised in twenty percent new oak for a year prior to bottling. Today, the wine is drinking splendidly well, offering up a deep, black fruity bouquet of black cherries, sweet dark berries, cigar ash, a touch of nutskin, a gorgeous base of dark soil, sweet Tuscan herb tones, violets and just a touch of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied, focused and complex, with a velvety attack, a beautiful core of fruit, lovely soil signature, still a bit of melting tannin and a long, seamlessly balanced and very classy finish. I love the cool vintage, sophisticated character of this wine! This is still out there in the market at $40 a bottle in the US and is a fine, fine value. 2021 – 2040
