THE WINE

Vineyard Profile

- Côte Rôtie is one of the most famous appellations of the Rhone Valley.
- The granite soils are mostly situated on very steep terraces and can be labored only by hand.
- The average yield is very low with 38 hl/ha.

Technical Information

- Our 2009 Cote Rotie has 2% Viognier in the blend in addition to the Syrah.
- Most of the blend comes from a plot situated in Ampuis (“Les Roziers”) and is associated to other grapes coming from Tupin-Semons (“But de Mont”).
- The grapes have been fully destemmed and have macerated during 25 days.
- The wine has been aged during 14 months in barrels.
