THE WINE

Winemaker's Notes

- Poggio Antico's Brunello di Montalcino is typically deep and intense ruby red in color.
 - The bouquet is well developed and persistent, and increases in intensity with further bottle aging. It has a very clean nose, with hints of blackberry and licorice.
 - In the mouth it is rounded and concentrated, with great vitality, yet elegant and harmonious, thanks to the particularly sweet tannins.
 - It has a very long finish and ages gracefully under proper conditions.
